1.0 Requirements for the Recycling Report

This Report has been prepared to support the requirements of the state with regard to the collection and reuse of computer monitors. ViewSonic recognizes that the State requires a manufacturer of computer monitors with a diagonal screen size of 4 inches or greater (CRT, LCD, Plasma), televisions, desktop/notebook computer, peripherals and other covered electronic devices (“CEDs”), shall develop and submit to the Department a Report for the collection, recycling or reuse of CEDs produced by the manufacturer. This Recycling Report made to comply with Producer Responsibility Law, Consumer Fee law, and States’ Take Back Program where ViewSonic recognizes the responsibility of collection, transportation, recycling, refurbishing and re-use of retired end-of-life electronic waste so they do not end up in our landfills. Go Green with ViewSonic, please visit <http://www.viewsonic.com/us/company/green/go-green-with-viewsonic>

ViewSonic recognizes its responsibility for its products, upon receipt at consolidation facilities in the State, as paying the cost of handling and recycling of ViewSonic’s share of the household waste stream (including the pro rata share of orphan waste) from receipt at the point of consolidation.

ViewSonic also recognizes that it shall implement and finance the implementation of this Report for the collection and recycling or reuse of computer monitors, televisions, desktop/notebook computer, peripherals and other covered electronic devices produced by ViewSonic and generated as waste by end-user households in the State. ViewSonic reserves the right to review and approve any collective recovery Report.

2.0 Take Back Recycling Program

For any electronic product, at the end of its lifespan, ViewSonic is committed to promote greener living and ensure that they do not end up in our landfills. ViewSonic has established a recycling program for our customers, to properly manage e-waste by partnering with state approved local recyclers, where applicable.

All electronic parts and e-waste collected by our recycling partner(s) will be recycled or reused in a manner that complies with federal, state, and local law. ViewSonic will not dispose covered devices in landfills or transfer covered devices to recycling facilities that dispose of covered devices in landfills other than necessary incidental disposal in de minimis amounts. ViewSonic contracts with collectors and recyclers that comply with all local, state, and federal regulations, utilize R2/RIOS and/or eSteward standards in the recyclers’ operations, and do not allow violation of laws when importing or exporting environmentally sensitive materials throughout final disposition. In addition, ViewSonic routinely audit our Authorized Repair Centers to ensure that they continually, properly process all e-waste.

To recycle Covered Electronic Devices (“CEDs”), such as monitors, TV’s, desktop computers, laptops, and peripherals. ViewSonic is happy to provide a Take Back program for customers for the following brand names:

Brands	CED’s	TV’s	Computer	Laptop	Keyboard/Mouse Peripherals
ViewSonic®	X	X	X	X	X **
Optiquest®	X
CyberVision™	X
Utopia	X

Note:

 Products are no longer in production.

All ViewSonic products contain “ViewSonic” or ViewSonic Finch Bird logo; product packages are labelled with “ViewSonic”, which can easily be identified as our brand name.

Consumers can visit our website, <http://www.viewsonic.com/us/company/green/recycle-program/recycle-program>, to recycle CEDs at no cost where available and in accordance to state requirements, made available as part of the Take Back program.

Consumers can visit ViewSonic Green page to obtain a free shipping return label by filling out a form via our website, <http://www.viewsonic.com/us/company/green/recycle-program/label>. ViewSonic and recycling partners collect and recover all ViewSonic CEDs under the Take Back program. Here is how the program works:

1. Visit <http://www.viewsonic.com/us/company/green/recycle-program/recycle-program> for a free shipping label.
2. Consumer fills out requested information via online Recycling Return Label Request form.
3. An email with a shipping label will be sent to the requestor.
4. Consumer may look up closest drop off location through a link of FedEx Office.
5. The consumer is to pack the end-of-life product in a box, affix the shipping label and drop off to the closest location.

FedEx offers three types of FedEx drop-off locations and they are widely available throughout the US. Consumers can easily find the nearest location via <http://fedex.com/Dropoff/start>

Should consumers have any questions or need assistance in our recycling program, they can contact ViewSonic Inside Sales at toll free number: (888) 881-8781 or recycleplus@viewsonic.com

3.0 Implementation and financing of ViewSonic's Recycling Program

Brief Description of the Program: ViewSonic provides several options for customers to recycle electronics in the U.S where applicable state imposed recycling laws have been established:

Manufacturer Group Plan - ViewSonic has adopted a manufacturer group plan to finance the transportation, collection and recycling of covered electronic devices (“CEDs”) and TV's under various e-waste state laws, where applicable.

State Plan – ViewSonic will work with the States in the collection of orphan units from end-user household waste, which are received at the States' approved consolidators. CEDs will be shipped to one of ViewSonic's nearest recycling partners, which are either located within the State or in a State in close proximity.

Take Back Program - ViewSonic implemented the Take Back Program according to States laws, where applicable. Please visit our Green page for details: <http://www.viewsonic.com/us/company/green/recycle-program/recycle-program>

ViewSonic has partnered with multi-faceted recycling and asset management companies to properly manage end-of-life electronics. We have thousands of locations throughout the United States and Canada to support your recycling need.

In addition, if you are located within the state of California, simply click on the following link to visit CalRecycle's e-waste website and find your nearest recycler location: www.erecycle.org/search

4.0 ViewSonic Green Program

ViewSonic respects the environment and encourages green living. The increasing volume of garbage in our landfills is a worldwide problem. ViewSonic Corporation is committed to put forth maximum effort to be a responsible corporate and community citizen to promote a greener and cleaner environment. ViewSonic will continue to produce energy saving, mercury-free, less plastic and electricity consumption products that reduce environmental impact; our LED monitors that are designed thinner and lightweight, which equates to less waste-generating packaging and lower fuel cost in transit. In addition, ViewSonic products meet EPA and RoHS standards on PBDEs (restricted use of flame retardants containing polybrominated diphenyl ethers).

All ViewSonic LCD and LCD TVs are made with plastic that can be recycled at the end of life and our brown craft packages are made with recycled cartons. We encourage our customers to respect the environment and put effort into working and living green. ViewSonic's recycling website, as listed in all Product User's Manuals are:

Frances,

I'm sorry to write back again, but I think we may still have an issue with the 1st paragraph under the "Confidentialty & Trademarks" section. It states that it may not be "...copied, reproduced, or transmitted by any means...without prior written permission..."

We will be copying and scanning this document. Do we have your permission to do that?

Thanks, Pat

Hi Frances,

I did receive your report - thank you for submitting that, However, before processing this, I need to clarify a few things and ask you how you would like to proceed.

Your report states that the document is Proprietary and Confidential. Is this correct?

If we need to treat this as Proprietary and Confidential, then we will have to go through a process to determine if it meets our standards for that status. If you feel that this is not proprietary and confidential, then you can either respond to this email and tell me that (and we will process the report and your email verification), or you could resubmit your report without the proprietary and confidential labels, and then we will process that version.

Thanks, Pat.
